

0.25 Carat Engraved Heart Bridal Ring Set in 14K White Gold

It's hard to miss the message of love that's conveyed by this 0.25 carat engraved heart bridal ring set in 14K white gold. Both rings in this coordinating pair are elegantly carved with tiny hearts that point the way to the quarter carat round prong-set diamond that rises from the engagement ring. Fine milgrain edges accent the matching bands of these 14K white gold rings as they work together to form a unified and beautiful symbol of your endless affection. A 0.25 carat diamond is set in an engraved heart bridal ring set in 14K white gold. Also available in 14K Rose Gold, 14K Yellow Gold or Platinum and 1 Carat by request.
